

953 C. ARAGON HOUSE

HOUSE TENANCY, MEMBERSHIP AGREEMENT AND HOUSE RULES

REVISED AND CONSOLIDATED AGREEMENT

Effective Date: 01 October 2026

This House Tenancy, Membership Agreement and House Rules (the “Agreement”) supersedes and consolidates the previous House Tenancy Agreements, House Rules, and amendments adopted for 953 C. Aragon House, including the agreements and amendments previously issued in 2014, 2017, and 2022, insofar as they are inconsistent with this Agreement.

This Agreement applies to all current and future members, occupants, and persons authorized to reside at or use the facilities of 953 C. Aragon House.

Acceptance of membership, payment of the annual membership contribution, occupancy of the House, or continued use of its facilities constitutes acknowledgment of and agreement to comply with this Agreement.

I. HOUSE

The premises covered by this Agreement are the residential property known as 953 C. Aragon House, located at 953 C. Aragon Street, Barangay 724, Malate, Manila 1004, Philippines, hereinafter referred to as the “House.”

The House shall, subject to available funds, reasonable wear and tear, maintenance requirements, and circumstances beyond the control of the House Administration, provide the utilities, common facilities, fixtures, furniture, and amenities reasonably necessary to maintain satisfactory communal living conditions.

All members shall exercise proper care in the use of the House and its furniture, appliances, fixtures, equipment, utilities, and common areas.

II. TENANCY AND HOUSE OPERATING ARRANGEMENT

The House operates under an annual tenancy arrangement, subject to renewal of the lease or other applicable arrangement with the property owner.

The House Administration shall coordinate renewal of the House tenancy and payment of amounts due to the property owner using funds collected for such purpose.

The annual rental amount shall be based on the prevailing rental agreement and may be adjusted whenever the property owner changes the rental rate or other contractual terms.

Membership does not confer ownership, proprietary interest, permanent occupancy rights, or an automatic right to continued residence.

Continued occupancy is subject to compliance with this Agreement, payment of applicable contributions and obligations, availability of accommodation, and approval of the House Administration.

III. HOUSE ADMINISTRATION

The House Administrators shall exercise general supervision and administration of the House, including tenancy and contractual obligations; financial records and House funds; implementation and enforcement of this Agreement; maintenance, repairs and improvements; membership applications; safety, security and cleanliness; disputes and reported violations; and other matters reasonably necessary for proper administration.

The House Administrators may delegate routine duties and responsibilities to the HouseMaster or another duly designated member.

Decisions affecting membership, disciplinary action, substantial expenditure, or major House policies shall be made in accordance with procedures established by the House Administration.

IV. HOUSEMASTER

The HouseMaster shall oversee the day-to-day affairs of the House under the authority of the House Administrators.

The HouseMaster's duties include coordinating collection of annual contributions and other amounts due; allocation and payment of utility bills; maintenance of financial records; monitoring cleanliness, maintenance and repairs; implementing House rules; coordinating weekly general cleaning; receiving reports concerning House problems or violations; and performing other reasonable duties delegated by the House Administrators.

The HouseMaster shall not exercise powers beyond those delegated by the House Administration.

V. MEMBERSHIP AND ANNUAL CONTRIBUTION

Membership in 953 C. Aragon House is an exclusive residential membership arrangement subject to approval by the House Administration and compliance with this Agreement.

Each member shall pay an annual membership contribution of TEN THOUSAND PESOS (PHP 10,000.00), or such amount as may subsequently be approved and formally announced.

The annual contribution shall be payable on or before the member's occupancy or commencement of stay and thereafter on or before the applicable annual renewal date.

Every person intending to become or remain a member shall satisfy the required annual contribution regardless of personal financial circumstances. Financial hardship shall not automatically exempt a person from payment. Any exception, extension, installment arrangement, or accommodation must be expressly approved in writing by the House Administration before occupancy or before the applicable payment deadline.

The House operates through the collective financial responsibility of its members and is not intended to operate as a charitable accommodation facility.

A member who fails to pay the required annual contribution shall receive notice of the outstanding balance. A member unpaid for two (2) consecutive annual membership periods may have membership privileges and access to or occupancy of the House temporarily suspended until outstanding obligations are settled or an approved payment arrangement is made.

A member unpaid for three (3) consecutive annual membership periods may have membership fully revoked, subject to written notice by the House Administration. Reinstatement is not automatic and may require a new application, settlement of outstanding obligations unless otherwise waived in writing, and approval by the House Administration.

Any existing member who recommends, refers, or sponsors a new member shall ensure that the prospective member understands the financial obligations of membership. As a condition of sponsorship, the referring member agrees that if the sponsored member leaves, defaults, or fails to settle annual membership contributions or other House obligations, the referring member may be required to settle the outstanding balance attributable to the sponsored member. Such responsibility should be expressly acknowledged by the referring member at the time of sponsorship.

VI. HOUSE ACCOUNT AND FINANCIAL ADMINISTRATION

All annual membership contributions, utility payments, assessments, reimbursements, and other House-related payments shall be made through the payment method or House Account officially designated by the House Administration.

Cash payments, bank transfers, direct deposits, electronic transfers, or other approved payment methods may be accepted.

Members shall receive appropriate notices or statements regarding annual membership contributions and other outstanding balances, and a payment confirmation or acknowledgment upon full settlement.

The House Administration shall maintain reasonable records of collections, expenditures, balances, and House-related financial transactions.

No member shall borrow, withdraw, or use House funds for personal purposes unless specifically authorized for a legitimate House-related purpose or genuine emergency.

VII. MEMBERSHIP STATUS AND CLASSIFICATION

For purposes of maintaining accurate membership records and ensuring compliance with the financial and administrative obligations of the House, all members shall be classified according to their current membership standing, as follows:

A. ACTIVE MEMBER

A member shall be classified as an Active Member when the member has made the required annual membership payment, whether in full or in part, for the current calendar year.

Only members who have demonstrated active participation through payment toward their current-year membership obligation shall be included in the official list of Active Members.

B. MEMBER IN ARREARS

A member shall be classified as a Member in Arrears when the member has an outstanding membership balance covering up to the two (2) preceding years.

Such classification indicates that the member remains recognized as a member but has unresolved financial obligations that must be settled in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement and House Rules.

C. MEMBER UNDER REVIEW

A member shall be classified as a Member Under Review when any of the following circumstances apply:

1. Membership dues or other required membership obligations have remained unsettled for more than two (2) years preceding the current year;
2. The member is subject to disciplinary review due to an alleged or established violation of this Agreement, the House Rules, or other applicable policies; or
3. The member is undergoing proceedings that may result in suspension, restriction of House privileges, eviction, or revocation of membership.

Placement under this classification shall not, by itself, constitute automatic termination of membership. Any suspension, eviction, or revocation shall be carried out in accordance with the applicable provisions and procedures established under this Agreement.

D. MEMBERSHIP STATUS LIST

A separate Official Membership Status List shall be maintained and posted periodically for transparency and administrative reference. The list shall indicate the current classification of each member as Active Member, Member in Arrears, or Member Under Review, as applicable.

Membership classifications may be updated whenever payments are received, outstanding obligations are settled, or a member's administrative or disciplinary status changes.

This Section shall take effect on 01 October 2026 and shall form an integral part of the House Tenancy Agreement, Membership Provisions, and House Rules of 953 C. Aragon.

VIII. HOUSE TENANCY AGREEMENT AND RULES

1. Equal Rights and Responsibilities

All approved members shall be treated equally with respect to their basic rights, privileges, responsibilities, and obligations. No previous classification such as Senior, Junior, Third Party, or similar designation shall exempt a member from financial or communal responsibilities unless expressly provided in a subsequent written amendment.

2. Utilities and Monthly Expenses

All members staying in the House and using its facilities, utilities, and services shall share responsibility for applicable monthly utility bills and communal operating expenses, including electricity, water, internet, cooking gas, common supplies, and other reasonable House expenses. Members staying only for a short period shall still make an appropriate contribution toward utilities and resources consumed during their stay.

3. Admission of New Members

Any person seeking membership must be properly proposed, vetted, and approved. A prospective member shall provide information reasonably required by the House Administration and pay the required annual membership contribution before or on the date occupancy begins, unless a written alternative arrangement has been approved. Payment alone does not guarantee admission.

4. Advance Notice for Proposed Members

A member intending to propose, sponsor, or bring a prospective new member to reside in the House shall announce the proposal at least fourteen (14) calendar days before the proposed arrival date. "Ambush-style" admission is strictly prohibited. A prospective occupant arriving without the required notice may be refused entry or accommodation until the notice period is satisfied or an exception is expressly approved by the House Administration. No member has unilateral authority to grant residential occupancy.

5. Visitors and Guests

Members are responsible for the conduct of their visitors and guests. Visitors shall not become de facto occupants through repeated or extended stays without approval, and guest arrangements shall not be used to circumvent membership, contribution, notice, or approval requirements.

6. Weekly General Cleaning

Participation in weekly House general cleaning is mandatory for all members who are present and physically able to participate. Members unable to participate for legitimate reasons shall inform the HouseMaster and may be assigned a reasonable alternative housekeeping task. Every member shall also maintain daily cleanliness and order.

7. Personal Property and Storage

Each member is responsible for safeguarding and organizing personal belongings. Stored property shall be kept to a reasonable minimum, particularly in the walk-in closet, storage room, and communal storage areas. Items must not obstruct access, create hazards, encourage pests, or cause unreasonable inconvenience. After reasonable notice, excessive, abandoned, damaged, unsafe, unsanitary, or improperly stored items may be required to be removed. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the House and its administrators shall not be responsible for loss or damage resulting from a member's failure to secure, identify, collect, or properly store personal property.

8. Online Shopping, Deliveries and Packages

Members using the House address for online purchases, couriers, deliveries, or packages are personally responsible for their shipments. Packages shall be collected promptly and shall not accumulate in entrances, passageways, common areas, or storage areas. Size, quantity, and frequency must remain reasonable and must not create a hazard or inconvenience. The House is not a warehouse or long-term parcel storage facility.

9. Personal and Emergency Information

Every member shall provide accurate and reasonably necessary personal and emergency contact information for House records and shall advise the House Administration of relevant changes.

10. Keys, Access and Security

Members shall safeguard keys, access codes, digital credentials, and other means of entry. They shall not be duplicated, transferred, loaned, or disclosed to unauthorized persons without approval. Loss or compromise shall be reported promptly.

11. Conservation of Resources

Members shall actively conserve electricity, water, cooking gas, supplies, and other House resources. Deliberate waste or unreasonable use that materially increases communal expenses may be addressed by the House Administration.

12. Donations and House Improvements

Members may voluntarily contribute food, appliances, furniture, supplies, funds, or other useful items for House improvement. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, a voluntary donation does not create a right to reimbursement or continued ownership. Large items should be coordinated with the House Administration before being brought into the House.

13. Damage to House Property

Any member, visitor, or other person responsible for damage beyond ordinary wear and tear may be required to pay the reasonable cost of repair, replacement, cleaning, or restoration. A member may be held responsible for ensuring settlement of damage caused by his visitor or guest.

14. Prohibited Conduct

Illegal drug activity; violence; threats; intimidation; harassment; bullying; theft; deliberate destruction of property; unauthorized taking of belongings; serious or repeated rude, abusive, insulting, disruptive, aggressive, or disrespectful behavior; sexual misconduct materially affecting the safety, dignity, privacy, or peaceful enjoyment of others; unreasonable safety, security, sanitation, or fire risks; unauthorized occupancy; repeated refusal to comply with reasonable House rules; and other unlawful activity materially affecting the House are prohibited.

15. Respectful Conduct and Removal for Misbehavior

Membership requires courtesy, cooperation, and respect. Serious or repeated rude, abusive, threatening, disruptive, hostile, or otherwise unacceptable conduct may result in suspension or revocation of membership and removal from the House. Minor disagreements should, where appropriate, first be addressed through discussion or warning. Serious misconduct may justify immediate protective action subject to applicable law.

16. Safety and Security

Members shall promptly report unsafe conditions, defective equipment, security concerns, suspected unauthorized entry, fire hazards, or other significant risks. Emergency exits, doors, stairs, corridors, electrical equipment, fire extinguishers, and other safety equipment shall not be obstructed, disabled, or improperly used.

17. Meetings and Group Participation

Members are strongly encouraged to participate actively in House meetings, announcements, polls, and group discussions concerning improvements, safety, security, cleanliness, environmental matters, finances, social activities, and communal welfare.

18. Official Communications and Notices

Official notices may be communicated personally, in writing, through the recognized House group chat or social-media group, electronic messaging, email, or another channel designated by the House Administration. Members are responsible for reasonably monitoring official House communications.

19. Payment Confirmations

Members shall receive confirmation or acknowledgment when annual membership contributions or other recorded financial obligations have been fully settled and should retain payment records.

20. Financial Accountability

No House funds shall be used for personal purposes. Outstanding obligations shall be settled within the period stated in the applicable notice. House funds shall be used only for legitimate House purposes.

21. Cleanliness, Sanitation and Waste

Members shall maintain sanitary conditions, properly dispose of household waste, prevent food or waste from attracting pests, and leave common areas reasonably clean after use.

22. Common Areas

Common areas are for the reasonable use and benefit of all authorized members. No person may permanently appropriate a common area for exclusive personal use without approval.

23. Complaints and Reporting

Members shall promptly report significant violations, safety concerns, misconduct, damage, or disputes to the HouseMaster or House Administrators. Complaints shall be made in good faith. Knowingly false or malicious accusations may themselves constitute misconduct.

24. Discipline

Depending on the nature, seriousness, frequency, and consequences of a violation, disciplinary action may include a verbal reminder, written warning, temporary restriction or suspension, requirement to settle damages or outstanding obligations, termination or revocation of membership, and removal from the House. Measures need not be applied sequentially where serious circumstances warrant stronger action. Where practicable, the affected member should be informed of the alleged violation and given a reasonable opportunity to explain before final revocation. Any removal or exclusion shall be implemented consistently with applicable law.

25. Membership Suspension or Revocation

Membership may be suspended or revoked for substantial or repeated violation of this Agreement, including failure to satisfy financial obligations, serious misconduct, unauthorized occupancy, violence or threats, illegal activity, serious property damage, repeated safety or security violations, or persistent refusal to comply with reasonable House requirements. Revocation does not extinguish valid financial obligations incurred beforehand.

26. Departure and Personal Property

A member permanently leaving the House shall remove personal belongings and settle outstanding obligations. The House Administration may establish a reasonable deadline for collection of property left behind. Property not collected after notice and expiration of that period may be disposed of, donated, or otherwise dealt with as permitted by law.

27. No Waiver

Failure to enforce a provision on one occasion does not constitute a permanent waiver or prevent future enforcement. An exception granted to one member does not automatically entitle another member to the same exception.

28. Amendments

The House Administration may propose amendments reasonably necessary for proper operation, safety, financial stability, security, or improvement of the House. Material amendments shall be communicated before implementation. No informal conversation or individual arrangement shall amend this Agreement unless recognized or confirmed by the House Administration.

29. Severability

If any provision is determined to be invalid, unlawful, or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall continue in effect to the fullest extent permitted by law.

30. Compliance With Philippine Law

Nothing in this Agreement authorizes any action prohibited by applicable Philippine law. Where a provision conflicts with a mandatory legal requirement, applicable law shall prevail without invalidating the remainder of the Agreement.

IX. ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND ACCEPTANCE

By signing below, the member confirms that he has received or been given access to this Agreement; has read and understood its provisions; has had an opportunity to ask questions; understands the financial obligations of membership; agrees to comply with the House Rules and reasonable administrative requirements; understands that continued occupancy is conditional upon compliance; and voluntarily agrees to be bound by its terms, subject to applicable law.

Member's Name	_____
Signature	_____
Date	_____
Annual Membership Period	_____
Amount Paid	PHP _____
Payment Reference	_____
Referring/Sponsoring Member, if applicable	_____
Sponsor's Signature	_____

By signing above, the sponsoring member acknowledges the sponsorship provisions of this Agreement, including any applicable responsibility for unsettled obligations of the member he sponsored.

FOR THE HOUSE ADMINISTRATION

Name: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Important: This agreement is an internal house-governance document and remains subject to applicable Philippine law. Legal review is advisable before formal adoption, particularly for access restrictions, removal, and sponsor-liability provisions.